Dated, Agartala, the 26/02/2014.

Notification

Subject:- Declaration of Ramkrishna Mission Vidyalaya as a " Specified Category " school.

The provision made under Section 2 (p) of the Right of Children to Free & Compulsory Education Act, 2009 authorizes the appropriate Government (State Govt.) to declare any school as a specified category school provided the school identified as such bears a distinct character.

The Ramkrishna Mission Vidyalaya located at Viveknagar, Tripura (West) is looked upon as a school having distinct character considering the background of establishing the school. The school is one of those receiving grant-in-aid from the State Government.

The school came into being as a follow up of the accord inked among the Union Government, the State Government and Tripura National Volunteers in 1989. The purpose of establishing the institution was to bring amity between the tribal population & the non- tribal population of the State.

The experience shows that the mix of the students belonging to both reserved category and un-reserved category has benefited those belonging to reserved category to a great extent.

In view of the above, the Governor is pleased to order that the Ramkrishna Mission Vidyalaya located at Viveknagar, Tripura (West) - 799130 shall henceforth be deemed to be a specified category school.

This is issued as per approval accorded vide U.O No. - 1977/Min (SE)/14 dated 08/02/2014.
